

Consent form for collection of personal data from the Department of Computer Science, Tunghai University

The Department of Computer Science, Tunghai University (hereinafter referred to as the Department) is recruiting teachers to collect personal data from you. In accordance with the provisions of the Personal Data Protection Law and the requirements of the University's personal data protection policy, before you provide your personal data, the Department is obliged to inform you of the following matters, please read carefully.

1. Purpose of collection: To handle this event and related administrative management.
2. Types of Personal Data:
 - (1) Individual identification: such as name and contact information, etc.
 - (2) Financial identification: such as the account number and name of a financial institution, the number of a credit card or debit card, etc.
 - (3) Identification of government information: such as the unified national identity card number, passport number, etc.
 - (4) Personal description: such as age, gender, date of birth, etc.
3. Period, region, object and method of use of personal data:

Period of use: Until the purpose of collection disappears.

Area of use: Except for the purpose of collection involving international business or activities, this department only uses your personal data within the territory of Taiwan.

Object and method: This is to use your personal data within the scope necessary for the purpose of collection.
4. The rights of the parties:

You can request this department to view, make copies, supplement or correct, stop collecting /processing /utilizing or delete your personal data.
5. Impact of rights and interests of not providing correct personal data: If you do not provide correct personal data, our department will not be able to provide you with specific purpose related services.

☐ I have been informed and understood the above matters, and agree that you collect, process and use, within the necessary scope of the listed collection purposes, my personal data.

Please tick before signing

Signature : _____

Please print it yourself and send it back with the application materials.